“ We knew "Anne Marie" from Mt. Carmel, my sister and I always talked to her, and her mom and dad. We've always wondered how she was doing and were very sad to see that she had passed. We stopped in to the funeral home last evening about 7:30 to see her and the family had just left, nevertheless we were both glad we got a chance to say goodbye to a very sweet gal. One beautiful thing is that Annie is with her Mom again, they were so inseparable. Our deepest sympathy to her family, she will be remembered in our prayers.

Sincerely, Sue Halasy and Sandy Conner

“ Annie became my sister's roommate in June. Annie was positive, funny and had a great attitude. People loved her. When I first met Annie, she told me "I can't read, I can't write, what you are going to do?" From that moment, I wanted Annie to have a happy life in a safe place. So, Annie moved in with her fishing pole and a regrettable MSU Spartan magnet I discovered prominently displayed on the refrigerator. Material things never mattered to Annie –all that mattered to her was people. Annie seemed to make everything right in the world. Annie left us on November 1 with everything she had – our hearts. I am fortunate to have known Annie - she reminded me of what is truly important.
