“ I loved ben... kate and ben always showed my family love.. it was an honor to know ben, and I always thought of ben as famly..... one of my fondest memories was of their v.w. shop in ecorse... as a child, I looked forward to putting change in their town club pop machine ... or ben used to let me use the hydraulic lift to lift the cars... but my favorite was the fourth of july, atop the truck he brought to give us the best view.....
He is loved, and very missed... nobody deserves a place in heaven more.... god bless kate, and help her through the loss

“ I met Ben when I married Brian, he and Kate always drove over to Mom's house to see us when we came home on leave. His funny nature and warm hugs will truly be missed!!! God Bless you Ben.

“ I just learned of Bens passing and am so heartbroken. I have so many wonderful memories from my childhood visiting my Papoo's and Grams home which more often than not included a visit to Bens VW repair shop. I loved getting a bottle of pop out of his cool pop machine, chasing the pigeons around, peeking over the door at the dogs, having an awesome spot to watch fireworks, and just sitting around listening to him tell jokes and stories in his awesome accent! It was always a special treat to have them visit our home. Catherine, you are very much a part of those fond memories and you both were a very positive part of my childhood. Sending you my love, and letting you know you are in my thoughts and prayers. Tricia (reside) Adamen.

“ I just learned of Ben's passing and I am so upset. He worked on my vw bug back in the 70's. And then a few years ago I met him again while taking my young grandson to ride the train in the Southgate. Ben was always larger than life-so caring and giving and always quick to smile. I thought he would live forever. He will be sorely missed. He and his wife were two of the kindest people I have ever known. So sad.

“ Was this Ben of "Ben's Foreign Car Service"? If so, he was a wonderful mechanic! Way back in the early 70's my VW's made many trips to see. He always fixed them for a reasonable price. His wife was always in the shop with him. Good memories of this man.

“ Ben was one of those unforgettable people. I knew him as a patient. He was always in good spirits, joking and teasing constantly. Always a pleasure to be around. He would fix things for us at the office and of course come dressed up almost every holiday as the Easter Bunny, Santa Claus, Superman etc... My prayers are with his wife Catherine
