“Dave, Debbie, and Nikki, words cannot describe how sad we were to hear about Brian. Please know you are all in our hearts, thoughts, and prayers during this extremely difficult time. God had bigger plans for Brian. Now he can watch over all of you. Just as you did for him. All our love, Frank, Beth, Jessa, Dakota, and Hunter Chirillo

“ I met the Fobar's at little lambs preschool, and also had the pleasure of cutting Brian's. Even though we didn't get to see each other very much, whenever I saw Debbie we would just click and start talking like there had never been a time we weren't together!! My heart goes out to all of you!! Dale and I have been heart broken for you all and we will pray for you all in this most unbelievable time in your lives!! The Thornton's

I remember the little Brian and how much he wanted to learn in school. He was very kind and he was thoughtful of his other little school mates. He also wanted to be a pilot for a little time but that changed as many times as a little boy can change their mind. He also listened very well to his mom when she told him to do something, even on 9/11 when he was left off at school full well knowing what was going on but momma told him not to tell anyone because it might frighten them. I'll never forget when he told me to bend down so he could quietly tell me "I know what's happening but I won't tell." I wish you only peace, comfort, and the hope that I have that I will see him with my other loved ones in heaven. Kathi Kimling

I remember the day that Dave, Debbie, Brian and Nikki came to pick up our cat to take home to have him put down. They were at the Toledo Zoo and offered to pick the cat on their way home to handle things for us, he was so kind. Sorry Dave, but Brian outshone you that day. He assured me, with his cute little face, try so hard to be comforting to me, patted my back, and hugs and kisses all around from all of the rest of you, but, Brian was so sincere for his age. What a day. That adorable Brian, and the rest of you, made that day much easier. RIP my little buddy. I know you are watching us, and everyone you knew and loved. I pray for your peace, no more troubles, changed your pump for wings, and will always, always be remembered in prayer, and special prayers for your immediate family. The are so sad, as so are we. Love you Brian!
