“ Our Brentwood Digital team worked with Dan for 8 years at some of our largest events. Over the course of time Dan became one of our trusted colleagues and regarded as a self started. Once you turned an assignment over to Dan you could consider it a done deal. He knew how to problem solve, he knew how to use his equipment and mostly he knew how to deal with the customer. Dan was always a man of character as well as a character but most of all we all grew to respect him and admire his dedication to his sport, his family and to himself.

My fondest memory of Dan is the first time I met him at Ford Field in Detroit he turned the corner and he had knee pads on and two cameras dangling from his hip. Strapped to his should was a tripod and a video camera and he was reading a work assignment and trying to reach for his cell phone while walking back to the booth. The imagery he created as a dedicated professional was inspiring and I can say I was certainly impressed by this man. Along the way we shared many triumphs, a lot of laughs and a real sense of comradeship, I can say without hesitation Dan Swint was a hard working, disciplined, and likable guy. Dan never complained about anything, if something was wrong he would find a solution to correct it and move on.

I admired how Dan would mentor Danielle in how to be a photographer, how to be an independent thinker and mostly how to get the job completed. Dan I hope you find a peaceful place as you certainly are deserving. Rest in peace Dan the Man.

“ I remember one weekend at the lake he made the best brisket in that big green egg. He was a good cook. I wish we could have gotten together more, but us moving to NC made it difficult. To the family; I know he was not ready to leave you, nor were you ready for him to leave, but God needed to call him home. Take comfort in how much you loved each other. We all are on loan from God, and one day you'll be together again. RIP my old friend. Till we meet again.

“ Dan was a friend of the family, a partner to my father on the pistol team and he gave me my first job. I worked for him for almost 5 years before finally moving on. The whole time, he was a great boss and never expected anyone to do something he wouldn't do himself.

He is a great guy that is gone too soon. Prayers and thoughts to Ann and the kids. Xoxo

“ This is one of my favorite photos of Uncle Danny and Juli from my wedding. I will never forget Uncle Danny's wonderful smile, hilarious sense of humor and a laugh that was contagious. He made the best green chili and was loved by all. I miss you Uncle Danny. Love you!
