“ Both my husband and I are heart-broken by the loss of Ted. We knew him as Ed, aka Arvid Wildman. He was the consummate gentleman, with a wonderfully corny sense of humor. I don't think he ever spoke an unkind word about or to anyone. He will be in our prayers daily until we meet with him again. May God wrap you in His loving arms in this sorrowful time.

Love and prayers from Dr. Luis & Susan Flores

“ My condolences to the Klapec family on the loss of their beloved Ed. I was one of his supervisors at BASF when he first started working there. He was a funny and talented mechanic. I always enjoyed being around him and he was certainly a dedicated employee. So sorry he passed so early in his life.
