“ Our perfect little boy..being your parents is the most immeasurable honor. We will take our memories with you and hold them close forever. This is an utterly excruciating pain, but it was amazing to be able to hold you and kiss you, even for just a short time. Rest peacefully with God, to your sibling Riley, and your papa. They will take care of you until Daddy and I can again. Until then, we will miss you every single day, our little love. We love you more than words could ever express.
