“ Emma Joyce came to live at The Terrace on "The Village" 7 years ago, shortly after she came to "the Village" she became my shadow, she became my helper and followed me throughout my med pass some times from room to room and would stand either outside the doorway or in the hallway, Emma Joyce liked to be my helper so much that I made a name tag for her with her name on it just like mine. Emma Joyce was also my secretary at times and to keep her busy she would set in the nurse's station and help sort math and coloring pages to help keep the other residents busy. Emma also liked to chew gum or eat hart candy so I made sure she always had a good supply on hand. Emma Joyce liked to get her hair fixed and always had her makeup on everyday, thanks to Debbie and Maria. Her husband Bob would come into visit and at times we would set up lunches to celebrate Joyce's birthday or their Anniversary, one Anniversary I had mentioned it to the Executive Director Amy and she ordered a basket of flowers for them and I ordered a Lunch for Bob so that they could eat together. Everyone at The Terrace have come to love both Emma Joyce and Bob and will miss both, I only wished that I knew her before the dementia took over. It was a very sad day when Emma Joyce was moved from "the Village" and an even sadder day when we lost her forever. I love you Emma Joyce and will truly miss you!
