“ Elsie and I worked together. Always loved her, her advice was priceless. I attended her husband's service and she did not remember me. She touched my life. Especially loved it when she would eat such small portions of food for lunch. This was at Rawsonville Ford. She would say, you are young why do you hang out with me...I told her I loved her. Had to send the note. Called several times but her son didn't understand me. You had one special mother. Memories of her have always stayed with me.

Correction, we worked at the Sci Lab/Ford together...she was the only sane person besides me. Our coworkers gave us a rough time. John, apologies, I mixed her up with another coworker. Loved her, we lunched everyday. Worked in the same room, very dedicated to her job. We had each other to share bad times and laugh all day long. Will miss her -- we lost touch, but occasionally I called her in Trenton. My sympathy to all the family...RIP dear Elsie!
