“ I have not seen Felice since I was a teenager (a very long time ago). I remember him teaching my brother to drive his first car, a straight shift. Sorry to hear of his passing.

“ I've only known Felice a short time, but what a great guy and a fine musician. He played in my place several times with the LL7 band and did a wonderful job. He seemed to be the kind of person who dived into a subject and really strove to know everything he could about it.

My deepest condolences to Felice's family and friends. There really are no words.

“ A great friend and fabulous drummer. What a sorrowful loss for all of us. He was the best kind of player - automatic. I never had to think about anything going on behind me when he was on the kit. Never a concern. Always a consummate pro, did his homework and just nailed it. And always a great person to work with. Just stunned that he's gone. Gonna miss his infectious smile.

“ I had the extreme pleasure of working with Felice at ADT Security. He was a great man with a huge heart. Felice was very proud of his kids, his wife, his family, his music and our shared Italian heritage! He was always firm but fair to his team members, earning their respect and loyalty. Felice was well respected at both ADT and Wallside Windows. Talking music with Felice was always a highlight! A little work stress relief with a game of "name that tune" or music trivia. He always won and knew the name of all songs, the band, and on occasion, he would just break into song! Since we lost Felice, I am listening to music differently. Paying more attention to the drum section. My love and prayers are with his family. He will live on in the hearts of so many.

“ Felice has been a friend of mine since 1979. He and I were original members of "Kicks" a Rock Band that played local clubs, parties, weddings, and frankly, anywhere someone would have us. Along with being a good guy, I will say, " he was the best drummer I ever played with". Being a schooled percussionist that could read music, he never really played Rock and Roll much before our band. Well, he had no trouble adapting to playing it. I just talked with him before Christmas, and we planned on getting together to play in the near future. Well Felice....You'll have to wait until I join you in Heaven...then we can play together forever. I will miss him, and I pray for his soul, his wife Nancy, his children, and his entire family.

“ I remember in 1970 on many Fridays , Nini used to come over to our house and spend the night. He and Joe would be blasting the stereo in the basement and figuring out the drum arrangements to the songs. I remember one time, Nini came over with a new album, Jimi Hendrix. We listened to Purple Haze and I remember we all thought the lyrics were kind of strange. Looking back, I guess it would go over the heads of a 12, 13 and 14 year old. After all these years, I still think of Nini when I hear that song though I think of him too when I hear 'Little Red Riding Hood' by Sam the Sham & the Pharoahs. He had that record too and he thought it was pretty funny. My dear cousin Felice you will be missed but the love you gave will still be felt in so many hearts. Love your cousin Lora

This pic must of been in the early 80's when I came back from Air Force basic training. We had a little get together at Mr. B's (My Dads) Even though Felice looks like he's stoned, it was just bad timing with the flash I assure you.... I know he gave up drinking at one point and never looked back. Anyway, had to throw that in so nobody get's the wrong impression... He was a great person and will never be forgotten....RIP brother.

“*Felice and I were in a band together in High School. He was a total joy to play music with. Always open to new ideas and he was a great musician...a great drummer. Recently I got to play again with Felice when I sat in with Randy Brock's band. Felice was playing better than ever.....and as always...he had the most positive and joyful way about him. He would throw out that great smile of his when he played. He was a man with great talent...but even more importantly he was a man who cared greatly for people....he was a true friend. “My heart goes out to Nancy, Angela, Eric, Felice and the entire Bernardara family. I only knew Felice for a few short years as his bandmate. However, it didn't take me long to grow fond of him as a good person, dedicated husband, father, grandfather and friend. He made it very clear that his wife and family was everything to him. He became a role model for me, because we have so much in common, and I admire his passion for what was most important in his life. We are all in shock and saddened with his sudden passing. We, his bandmates, enjoyed some of his last moments of joy, laughter and sharing of goals for family - together during his last gig Friday night. It was an honor. He cannot be replaced, only remembered with fondness.

“ My Dad quit drinking alcohol by the time I was bored. He always said ive been sober for x amount of years. i admired the fact that he never showed me drugs or alcohol. Every trait my father had was good-he was hardworking, sober, and just a classy selfless human being. If theres anyone i will model my life after it was my Dad, he once said "let music be your drug" like being clean and playing music was a natural high of life. ill never forget my sweet father and i will carry his name with honor. Gone bit not forgotten. Rest in peace Dad, father Choy.

“ Nancy,

I don't have words to express my sorrow at your loss. And your children's loss. When we were younger Felice and I were very close. Sharing many adventures together. The years and circumstances took us in different directions.

But I always loved "NiNi" deeply and truly. The world has lost a special person. I am sure of one thing. Every time I hear the thunder coming down from heaven from here on out. I will wonder if it is just Felice playing his drums as worship to God and his angels. And smile.

May God bless and comfort you and your children at your great loss. But as I have recently learned. After the pain of loss begins to pass a bit. The tears become a brief smile. Because we begin to realize how blessed we were to of known and shared life with the ones we've loved. And even in the sadness of loss. Their is the joy that for a time we knew and loved them. And they made our life a more special thing. One worth doing. Even if it had to end.

But the love that is in your heart and those who loved him abide. The word of God says that only three things remain. "Faith, hope, and love" And the greatest of these is love. Because God is love. And since God never dies. Love never dies.

May the peace of God which surpasses all understanding be with you at this time. And as it says may you be blessed even as you mourn. My heart and tears are with you. And love. Goodbye Felice, and love from Uncle Tookie (aka David)
