“ In our younger days, George and Faye would come over our house or we would go to theirs.....we would play cards, especially spades, and have a great time being together.

My fondest memory, though, had to be taking George, Faye and my brother, Dusty, to Faye's graduation party. (They had all got together while I was sleeping and painted my 1968 Cougar for graduation!) Dusty was in the front seat of my car and George & Faye were in the back seat. They were quiet in the back seat....this was before they were dating. As a joke, I performed a marriage ceremony and told them, "I now pronounce you man and wife....now that you're married, you HAVE to talk to each other." Wouldn't you know it? They started dating and were married before the year was over!! Together they built a life and a beautiful family!!

George and Faye.....gone too soon!!! To Kris, Tracy, Sweet Melissa and Michelle....along with all the beautiful Grandkids and great grandson...I wish you peace and comfort. God Bless you and Keep you! You have all been through so much! My heart hurts so much for you and I'm so sorry for your loss. I love you all!!
