“ When I was a teacher at St. Stan's, Helen would send things to the school for my students, such as Easter cookies. Helen gave me one two of the beautiful angels that she crocheted. Every year when I put my classroom tree up, Helen's beautiful angels adorn it. One has a place of honor at the top of the tree. Whenever I put the angels on the tree I remember Helen and the love that she had for the students of St. Stanislaus Kostka school. I will miss her beautiful smile...Jennifer Piechocki

“ I only met Helen 2.5 years ago. In order to prepare for a newspaper article I had asked her to be among those to be interviewed. She was true lifer at St. Stan's - 90 years in the same parish! That is an amazing accomplishment. Even at 90 years of age, she was articulate and delightful to listen to in conversations. I am hoping we can all celebrate her life now, and perhaps with everyone when we march in the 4th of July Parade. All long time parishioners who have passed in the last two years should share this honor with Helen; a wonderful and thoughtful lady. we will all miss her in a very happy way.
