“ Dear Friends and Family of Mr. Carducci
I am honored by God Himself to ever be introduced to Mr. Carducci. What a wonderful man! Mr. Carducci unselfishly took Aunt Marie to bingo every Wednesday. He and Emily took Aunt Marie (and our whole family) as if we were their own. They invited Aunt Marie to the Italian-American club every month on Wednesday so she could enjoy the companionship of others in Ecorse and enjoy two meatballs, (she always took one home). Even when Aunt Marie was so disabled she could barely walk, Herman and Emily gave Aunt Marie some of the best times she had in her life.
Herman was always at church, being an usher, or greeting people at First Communion or church events. I enjoyed his pancakes and sausage at the Usher's breakfasts. He was instrumental in making sure there were impatiens planted under the sign and around the church grounds.
I will always feel blessed that Herman Carducci was part of my family's life.
Love
Joanne

“Mr. Carducci, the father of my friend since grade school, was a role model for all. He was hard-working, kind, raised his children well, was a wonderful husband, and a true Man of God. He epitomized the spirit of the volunteer in his church as long as he was able. I was honored to know him. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord.

“We have now lost our family patriarch, my Uncle Herman. What we have lost, God has gained. He is an unfailing servant of the Lord and has set an example for us that will never be easily attained.

Uncle Herman lived the life of Christ every moment of every day. He gave love to family and strangers alike. He lived for charity of all. Now he is returning to our Father in heaven where he is being greeted to a "well done, good and faithful servant".

The Lord has blessed me with every day that I had with this man as a family leader and loving relative. I will miss you immensely Uncle Herman. God's Peace is now with you.
