

Jack Joseph House, Sr.

September 6, 1930 - February 4, 2017

House, Jack J. Sr, 86, was the eldest son of "Housey" and Emma. He was an adventurous young boy who was born in West Virginia. He gave his mother plenty of scares getting hurt by sledding down the hills and swinging through the trees. He was drafted at the age of 18 and fought on the front lines during the Korean War. Jack was a true salesman. He sold pianos (of which he didn't even know how to play) to flooring, houses, insurance, cars and finally trailers. Hard to believe how comfortable he was speaking with others as he overcame stuttering as a child. His love of the outdoors led to many travels around the United States. His favorite place to travel was out west to the Grand Tetons. He was truly at peace camping with his dog. He loved to have a dog as his faithful companion. He was an avid Detroit Lions fan. He often said "I don't think the Lions will ever go to the Superbowl in my lifetime." Sadly his premonition came true. He enjoyed spending time with his family watching musicals, discussing books and watching sports. However, he always missed his Father, Mother, and brother Ulysses "Bud" whom passed before him. He is survived by his children Cheryl (Franco) Antonnicola, Jack Jr., Gary, and Charissa (Dan) Baibak. He is the proud grandfather of 9 grandchildren.
