“ I remember when I was a kid our family spending the holidays with him, Aunt Gale, and his kids, Joey and Holly and he'd be playing Christmas music on his organ. He was a very talented musician.

I think one of the things I remember the most is how Jim always said "there's my favorite niece or look it's our favorite nephew" and he didn't make a difference, he said it to all,. He was a wonderful man who just loved people and being around them.... Until we meet again! Dorothy

I remember my first introduction to Matilda. She was visiting my Gail's house while Jim and Gail were still legally married. Year prior to their divorce. God bless you Gail.
