“ We have never known anyone as full of love and life as Janet. She made everyone that came into her path feel special. Our grandchildren loved her so much. She was the most generous person we ever met. We saw her just about everyday and was blessed with her great cooking as we shared dishes that we passed back and forth over our backyard fence. She loved her children and grandchildren so very much and she always kept us updated on her latest activities with them and the latest achievements of her grandchildren, We will miss her hearty laugh and vibrant smile. She was so much more than a neighbor she was a very loving friend and family to us.

We know that she was called home to be with Joe and we will miss her so very much. But her memories and legacy will live on in her family and friends as we share our favorite Janet stories. She will live on forever in our heart.

“ Mrs. Grande will be missed. Growing up she always made me feel welcome when I came over. As an adult now when I would see her it would always be so good to see her. Always happy and sweet. You will be missed. May the family all find comfort in God's arms and know she is there with him.

“ When Mrs. Grande asked, "How are you?" she would patiently listen to your answer. She didn't ask the question as a casual, rhetorical greeting - she asked because she honestly wanted to know how you were doing. She never seemed to be in a hurry. Those kind of people are so rare and that is always what I'll remember most about her. I just saw her this past Halloween as my son and I were trick-or-treating in my old neighborhood. She was standing at the front door as we walked up and she said, "Ian! I've been waiting for you. I was hoping you'd come." She told me to hold on a second as she went inside to get something for him. She came back with a huge bag of treats she'd put together especially for him. It was so big it didn't fit into his little pumpkin. I was so touched that she had thought about my son while she was at the grocery store. I wanted to stay and catch up and tell her how much her small gesture had meant to me, but it was so cold this past Halloween, so we just said a quick thanks and went on our way. I always thought there would be another time, maybe sometime warmer, when I could properly thank her for her thoughtfulness and generosity. I hate it that I was wrong. I will always think of Mrs. Grande when we walk past her house on Halloween. I will tell my son this story every year and I hope he will learn from it what I learned from it - that you should never wait for "another time." I will miss you, Mrs. Grande. XOXO

“ I remember attending Joe and Janet's wedding as a child and being totally in awe of the beautiful bride Janet was. As their children entered their lives, Joe and Janet became the essence of a beautiful and loving family. Janet will forever be remembered for her grace, kindness, laughter, and sincerity. She welcomed everyone into her home and provided wonderfully delicious meals and desserts. She showed genuine interest in others and was extremely generous and giving. Janet is truly a most memorable woman who touched all who were fortunate enough to have her in their lives.

“ I don't know anyone that knew Mrs. Grande that didn't love her. That bright smile, and 'laugh out loud' laugh of hers drew you right in as family when you were the little munchkin kid that live down the street. Her home was second home to me where you always felt welcomed. If you were there at lunch, another bowl was set, at dinner another plate, never any question. We had a lot of laughs on 14th, great memories that rolled into adulthood as Mrs Grande watched my children grow-up. Then the pure joy of my grandson growing. She so loved the kiddies, the more the merrier. I will miss Ms Grande, with all of her peace, her faith, and her understanding without so much as saying a word. It is with that great faith we know that in this sudden loss God is there to hold this beautiful family together and get them through. I love all of you and will see you tomorrow .
