“ Dear Mom,

Today is your birthday, you would have been 81. I think of you often, and love you very much, you shall always be missed. But I have very strong Faith that you are fine and that I will see you again someday, with your help I hope it is when I am in my 90's!

Give Dad a kiss for me,

Love you,

Rick

Vern,

She knows that you loved her and what you helped with in the past 9 years, and you should be proud of that always. Her and Dad are together again, and that is all that matters now, always keep that image in your head.

*Love,
Rick*

“ Dearest Mom,

I can't say enough how much I love you and how proud I am that you are my mother. You taught me so much of how to be strong, and have respect for others. You lead by example with how you cared for your kids and your husband (Dad) and never let a single day go by without saying you love us. You had high standards and class with the way you dressed, the affection you gave Dad and the family, and how that showed with everything you did.

You possessed a faithfulness that is very uncommon in today's world with your love for Dad and the 58 great years you had together. We will never forget your special "sayings" or "momisms" as we have nicknamed them, they were so funny and full of life. Yes mom, you were the best, and that is not just one of those cliché's, it is a fact, you are one in a billion.

I am o.k with you leaving us after such a long battle, as I know that you are with Dad, happy, vibrant, and so very busy getting caught up with all of the loved ones that have gone before. We will be together again, as I know that the promise of the Lord in his word that all that believe in him dying for our sins on the cross will inherit his Kingdom is true.

All kids should be so lucky to have had the childhood we had, the great adventures and traveling, the sharing of heritage, and just a true wholesome upbringing that made six very special kids that offer so much to society by having great work ethic and high standards, and helping people help themselves in leading by example.

You and Dad taught us how to be responsible, accountable, loving, and how to stand up for ourselves when needed, all great traits that are often missed in the modern family. We are old school, old souls, almost from a different time era it seems now days, they just don't make people like you (us) anymore.

God bless your sweet soul mom, rest in peace, and make your new home in eternity as you did here on earth with lots of love and joy. We will see you again someday, and you can show us that home and invite us in for some of that great cooking!

You shall be missed greatly,

So much love,

Rick

Greg,

I do wish I would have had more time today to mention how much I respect you and how proud I am of you for what you did for Mom and Dad over the past 9 years. I know without doubt that Mom and Dad both know that you went above and beyond with their care and decision making. I also know that there is a special place for you in heaven for that, as the bible speaks of how we should cherish our parents.

So have no regrets at all about anything, you did the best you could bro, and it is uncommon to say the least, as most people just don't have that in them.

Love ya,

Rick

Jessica,
Thank you for coming to pay your respects to my dear mom.
I will always be grateful to those that truly cared for her (and my dad) while at your facility. Your comforting words were well received, and I thank you again

“ Mom,

You were the best mother any child could ever be lucky enough to call mom. Your self sacrifice and thoughtful ways will always comfort us. You truly have a special place in Heaven. We all know that you will be at the pearly gates to greet us someday.

Eternal love,

Greg, Tim, Rick, Missy, Vernie, and Vickie
