“ I am sorry for your loss. I attend Good Shepherd church and remember him at 4:00pm mass as the cheerful usher who always had a smile and a handshake for those in attendance. I will remember him each time I attend mass and think of his friendly, outgoing manner.

“ You Dad was such a wonderful person! He always had a smile for everyone and made everyone's day brighter! I remember when I saw him at my Aunt Millie's funeral and also my Mother's. He had such encouraging and heartfelt words of wisdom and comfort. John had plenty of good talks with my husband, Bob at Christ the Good Shepherd. I remember when they put up the new letters on the church. My husband loved their talks and thought very highly of John. I will remember his smile.. Take comfort in that he is now with your Mom, whom I know he greatly missed. Our deepest sympathies,
