“ To John's Family: So sorry to read about John, my good friend and so sorry I did not hear in time to attend his service! I just opened the newspaper and had a sad surprise reading about him! I'm glad I attended his 90th. birthday party-I think he was ready to go with Ann!

John used to visit Bishop Park often-he'd call me to tell me that he passed out my business card to someone he met-he was a sweet man and always promoted me!

I know he's in peace! I will always remember him!!! Rose Koval

“ I remember John welcoming us to the neighborhood when we first moved in. He always took a moment to very politely speak to us and always remembered to ask us questions about the previous time he saw us. I know you will miss this sweet and gentle man. Condolences to his family and friends.

“ One of my earliest memories of John was of he and my mother pulling out strudel dough on our dining room table (I was about six at the time). He was always a good and inventive cook who was able to pursue this love of food after he retired. He was a thoughtful host and made all feel welcome. I am glad that Dale and I were able to visit with him in June.
