“ When I heard he passed away yesterday I could only remember my fondest memory of Uncle Joe. Thirty plus years ago we would go to Uncle Joe and Aunt Anna's house every Christmas. As soon as we walked in Uncle Joe would hug us, one at a time, and say "hi, doll face". Never felt so loved, we will miss your sweetness Uncle Joe. Condolences to the Prush family.

“ I will always remember singing (OK....let's be real; trying to sing) karaoke with Uncle Joe! He was always so willing to jump in, regardless of the song choice (and in my case...save me!!) so you felt at ease!! What a great voice he had!!! He was such a warm, tender, kind-hearted person; just a beautiful human inside and out! This world has lost a wonderful spirit but heaven is a better place now that Uncle Joe has arrived! May all of the treasured memories you have accumulated over the years help to heal your broken hearts. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all especially at this most difficult time! Our sincerest condolences and lots of love, Pam, Terry and Family
