“ Lenny was a good man. He had a full life with so many stories of the events of his life from being a soldier, to raising his children, hunting, love of cooking, gardening, going on his vacations from Canada to Occopocco, very proud of all of his accomplishments, passing down some of his passions like hunting and the love of automobiles to hls children, he was very dedicated to his faith and church..I never seen him miss one Sunday while he was well. I could sit and listen to his stories for hours and they would never get boring. I'm so greatful to have been able to be a part of his family, he was so proud of his grandson LAYNE, my son...that was his itty bitty buddy and i could only count on one hand the number of days he didn't come over to visit him from the time he was born, through recently when we moved to his home the first thing he did when he got up was find his buddy and tell him good morning. It hurts that Layne is only 16 months, so he won't remember his jaja much, but he will be told many stories about his loving jaja and how much he adored him. Rest in Peace Jaja you will be and are already dearly missed. With love...Mary
