“ I have many wonderful childhood memories of Marty. I attended a sleepover birthday party of his around age 12, and we were real close for a couple years following. I always marveled the way he could 'Eddie Haskell' friends parents. Always showing great respect.

I know he fought a lifetime of demons, may he finally be at peace.

Darren, thank you for sharing your memories. Marty was a great guy but you're right his demons were many. It's now that I can put those memories behind me and bring to the surface all the wonderful memories. He is at peace, I know it in my heart. 💜💜💜💜
