Tribute Wall

“ Dear Phyllis, Jackie, Walt and the rest of the family, Mom's are so very special. No one can ever replace them. I remember your mother from when I was younger waiting for you Jackie to walk to school, and then when we got older and you were at the apartments, I even did her hair for her one time. I will always remember that she used to called you Jack Sprat and took such good care of you and wanted the best for you.
I still remember you dad as well, and I know he has been waiting a very long time for his beloved wife to join him. I also know now as she is with him that your hearts are broken. I pray that you will cherish the wonderful moments you had with her and how kind and sweet she was. I know that your mother loved all of you very, very much, just know that love doesn't die. Her love for you is still there, you will find her in the little things you do in life, just look and she will be there.
