“ My Ciocia, my godmother, I will miss you dearly. Always loving, accepting and sensitive. I cherish the trips to SC to visit me when I was there and so many other memories through the years. Rest In Peace Ciocia.

“ I'll never forget my first Christmas with the Strok's about 20 years ago. I come from a family that demonstrated reserved affection. Within minutes of Paula walking in the door (and my first time meeting her), she grabbed my cheeks with two hands and placed a sloppy wet kiss on my mouth.

As the ambassador of warmth for the Strok family and the bearer of one of the biggest hearts I've ever known, I've enjoyed the love of the Strok family ever since. Wish I could be there to celebrate Paula and support everyone. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ PAULA was my dearest childhood friend. We were inseparable. Spent every summer at Detroit beach cottage. Our moms were best friends. She was my Polish dancing partner. Pete named me Many Kotrzepka and I called her Polski wyrob. Rest in peace my dearest friend.
