“ So sorry to hear about Pete. He was very knowledgeable, dependable, and a pleasure to work with. He will be missed. May peace be with you Pete.

“ Pete and I seemed to have seen the entire UP during the 70's-80's, fishing all day, Tigers with Ernie Harwell and a campfire all night, of course with the proverbial 'cold one' tossed in. Speaking of cold ones it sure was during the ice fishing trip in 85 on Keweenaw Bay, how you loved the local's home made Pear Wine, lol. I fondly reminisce of our trips to the Big House for many a UM football game, or game 4 of the 84 World Series. Did we ever get around together! You went to young, have a beer and burger at that big brewery in the sky for me. Take Care and may God Bless.

“ I grew up knowing PJ too... us kids on 10th street in Wyandotte called ourselves the "10th Street Gang".. not like a bad gang but there were so many of us, we were a gang of kids that had fun growing up! All of us were friends and whether it was Tuesday nights when our moms left for bowling or just outside playing till the streetlights came on, we always had our fun... too many other stories to tell here! The old pictures that have been posted is how I remember PJ... rest in peace buddy...

“ Pete and I grew up together we were like brothers. Between the metal pedal cars in the 60's , Schwinn sting rays in the 70's all up to our first car. My favorite was when Pete was my jumper in the UPS truck during Christmas time and the summer days he would come over and we would sit and talk just about anything over a beer. I could write a book on Pete and I and all are other friends, yes there were many we called our self's the 10th Streeter's those were the day's so many memories. We will all miss you especially me cause Pete and I were the best of friends.

“ I will always remember the 10th Street gang bowling team and all the poker games, softball games and playing ball out on electric field. We grew up together, I lived 2 doors down. I will always remember Pete, Ray Walters

“ What a great guy, relative, and friend!
Always loved arguing with him and Kenny about sports, and he was always more than happy to take my money at the poker games...and emptying Kenny's Cool-Whip tub of nickels and dimes. Parties won't be the same without him...

“ I've known PJ for about 24 years. Yes he was always loud and obnoxious, but he was always there when I needed help. He came over our house every Sunday for tiger games and lions games. I'm in total shock since I just saw him Sunday. I love to argue with him on any sports and we both liked to be the expert. 9 days away from Super Bowl and I'm already lost. We would talk almost everyday when the lottery came on at 1:00 pm and 7:00 pm. He was talking about retiring in 3 years and moving to Florida. My wife and I are going to miss him dearly. R.I.P buddy!!!

“ Peter was my Uncle, he would come over every Sunday to watch the Lions with Kenny and myself. I would cook him something to take home with him. He was a great guy, he will be missed. Love you RIP.
