“ Raymond Wegner was my uncle, brother to my mother Ruth Marie Brei. He was always kind and loving to his family and his energy was infectious. He loved to laugh and he often connected life events with old songs or catch phrases from movies or comedians he favored. He enjoyed Red Skelton type humor and he always had the most hilarious stories to make us laugh. His favorite birthday restaurant was Red Lobster and we went there every time we visited him in Michigan. He was a good man, a loving husband, father/grandfather and uncle. I know he is with God and everyone we have loved and lost. His spirit lives on in all of us who he touched during his lifetime. I love you Uncle Ray! God Bless Rickey for all the care he gave his dad and I pray for strength to Sammie, Adam, Joey and Abby. Love from Sandy, Nate (great nephew), Stephanie (great niece and family), Sharon, Kevin (great nephew and family) and Dee Dee (great neice and family)
