“ I am so sorry . Bob was a wonderful man. He contributed greatly, and put so much love, into St. Mark's. Our church was a very blessed to have him. I remember his tireless work as St. Mark's grew, and changed and all the work that went into our building. I am so sorry for your families loss. Take comfort that he is forever safe , in Christ Jesus our Lord. Roger and I always, admired him and respected him greatly.

My heart and my prayers are with your family

“Dear Mel, Rob and Ann: We are very sorry to hear that Bob passed away. We knew he was in the hospital on the day we went to the viewing for Pearl Marquardt. We thought we might visit but Helen heard from Ann that he was quite agitated. We felt another time would be better.

It is very comforting to know he will be spending Easter with his Heavenly Father and also to know someday we will all join him.

We have such happy memories of the day in 1968 when we met your family and I had the privilege of confirming Rob and Ann soon after. Bob would bring them to class and then work in the parsonage basement converting it into Sunday School rooms which were filled every Sunday and during VBS. Our Sunday School was so blessed to have both Mel and Bob serve as teachers for many years. Karen and Phil speak fondly of those years and also are sorry to hear of Bob's death.

Owing to the diligent efforts of both Bob and Mel and others from that era, under the Lord's guidance St. Mark's experienced wonderful growth, becoming a spiritual oasis for Flat Rock and surrounding communities. Bob served as a council member for many years, often as chairman.

As we read through the dedication programs of the church building, parsonage, balcony addition which provided two Sunday School rooms beneath, the addition of the educational wing in 1985, and the dedication of the art glass windows in 1995, again and again we see Mel and Bob's names appear on various committees and as donors of gifts. Also on the joyous occasions of the 25th anniversary and the 50th anniversary of St. Mark's congregation, Bob and Mel actively participated.

We personally and those who belonged to St. Mark's over the years are very thankful to the Lord for all that Bob and Mel have done. We are thankful also that Rob and Ann are carrying on that work at Good Shepherd in Novi.

We hope to attend the viewing for Bob on Wed.

May our Heavenly Father bring you all comfort during this time of loss.
