“So many fond memories. I loved watching her buy Christmas gifts for everyone at the front desk. It spoke of her giving heart! I have a prayer locket I will always cherish. I wanted to buy her something great...the best thing I could think of was a Bible...she told me several times...she still reads that Bible.
We grew up in the same neighborhood. I never met her until we worked together. It was meant for us to meet.
There are some conversations that need to remain in my heart and mind forever.
One memory is Make-up and any of you that knew my precious friend knows she loved it. Also, Our yard sale Saturdays always had laughter.
I will meet her again, this time forever with no goodbyes.
I love her. Sylvia Joyce

“ We left Trenton, MI some 16 years ago but took the memory of Rose with us.

She and Roger and their kids were our next door neighbors. We were blessed with having such good neighbors.

May she rest in peace with God. She deserves the best heaven has to offer.

Wish we could be up there.

Peace,

Richard and Nancy St. Amant

“ Keep in your thought's, Your mom's physical presence is gone. But she lives in the LORD'S GLORY. That is everlasting life. Your mom is always with you. Just as your HEAVENLY FATHER is with you. She believed, therefore for your comfort and healing you must also.

With my love and life long memories

“ Rose was a beautiful, kind, cheerful, wonderful, woman that we were very privileged to know having worked at Oakwood Hospital many years ago. She always had a beautiful smile to share with everyone. We are so very, very, sad to hear of her passing. Heaven welcomed a beautiful spirit. Jeanie and Paul Kurily

“ In one's life you come in contact with many but only a few special people. Rose was special, her humor, intelligence, and overall kindness were present everyday. I was her manager at Oakwood for many years from 1985 until 1997. We remained in contact by phone once or twice a year to catch up on the Oakwood gossip. I wanted to extend my sincere condolences to the family and Michelle who I also worked with. Rose will surely be missed. If I didn't live way up in northern mi, I would come to the viewing. I am sorry to she is gone, but at least her long fought courageous battle in now over.

“ My memory of Rose will always be of the Loving and Caring Heart that she always had for everyone. She was adored and Loved by all who knew her and I will certainly miss not being able to talk with her anymore and to hear her voice. Rose was a true friend and I think anyone who knew her knew they were Blessed to have her in their life. She to me is one of Gods Angels and was known to many for a purpose ❤️ My condolences to Roger, her children and to her entire family and many friends. This is a Heartfelt loss to so many.
