

Vada Rose Cheresko

April 22, 2018 - April 24, 2018

Perfect. There is not a single word that we can think of to better describe our precious baby. In just two days, she managed to touch the lives of thousands; but her calling was not with us, she was too pure for this world. God called His angel home and Vada was welcomed into Heaven with the most beautiful smile on her face. She received kisses from her aunts, uncles, great-grandparents, and grandparents, and spent a lot of special time with Mom and Dad, singing, reading, and praying. Her light will live on in our hearts until the end of time and she will always inspire us with her strength, resilience, and heart of gold. We never imagined that someone so small could bring so much joy to our lives, but you have showed us what true love feels like.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory her parents Michael Cheresko & Hannah Cortese; Grandparents, Joe & Deanna Cortese and Mike & Erin Cheresko; Great-Grandparents, Paul & Sharon Rodman, Terry & Leo Cheresko and Ruth & Peter McCormick; Zia Izzy; Auntie Ruthee; Uncles Chase, Donny & Lonnie.

No flowers please. The family plans on placing a memorial bench in the baby section of the cemetery if anyone would like to make a contribution in remembrance of Vada. If so, checks should be made out to Our Lady of Hope Cemetery.

“ Having been under the employ of Deanna for the past two years, I have had the opportunity to witness she is a woman of undeniable Faith, as is her family. When the news of Hannah's pregnancy was shared with the staff of Our Lady of Hope and St. Joseph Cemeteries, the joy was evident in her voice. While the weeks passed and we learned about the gender of this unknown, already loved child, we all became Vada's "prayer warriors". There must be countless of us in the ether that have prayed for and will continue to pray for precious Vada. No one can understand the reason "why" she is no longer of this earth, but my fervent hope is that all members of the Cheresko, Cortese and Rodman families know they now have a guardian angel who will watch out for them, loves them and will welcome them into Heaven when their time is at hand. May God Bless Vada Rose and all of you.
